

Southern Nazarene University
R.T. Williams Library
Invites you to attend a book-signing party for Jeanne Prince

Address:
6729 NW 39th Expressway
Bethany, OK 73008 (see campus map)
Date: Saturday, July 21, 2012
Time: 2-4 p.m.

An Oklahoma Diary is a ready resource for Oklahoman's to quickly locate important historical facts and dates for and about noted events and persons who made history in our state. Jeanne Prince, using a number of valuable source materials to compile the diary, has encapsulated in one book a wealth of information that students, librarians, educators, and arm-chair historians will find very useful and to many, a welcome addition to their personal library.*

*William D. Welge, CA
 Director, Research Division
 Oklahoma Historical Society*

An Oklahoma Diary is a beautiful 8.5"x5.5", hard cover, 400-plus page history, complete with an index, photographs and quotations, covering the following topics:

- * African-Americans
- * Birthdays
- * Civil War
- * Courts
- * Crime
- * Death
- * Disaster
- * Education
- * Events
- * Government
- * Legislation
- * Media
- * Misc.
- * National Park
- * Native Americans
- * Presidents
- * Settlement
- * Slavery

Jeanne Prince, a native Oklahoman, is proud of her "Okie" heritage. Her paternal grandmother was born in Oklahoma Territory and her other grandparents settled in Oklahoma before statehood.

Jeanne holds Bachelor and Master's degrees in Journalism, and a Master of Library Science from the University of Oklahoma. She is a Certified Archivist and has worked in libraries and archives for over 10 years. She is active in state, regional, and national archival organizations. Currently, she is the Archivist for the Oklahoma Higher Education Heritage Society. Her responsibilities are to collect and maintain materials that document the history of higher education in Oklahoma, and to train librarians and archivists on the subjects relating to the proper care and storage of historical documents, photographs, and memorabilia.

Be sure to come by and pick up your pre-ordered copy!

Additional copies may be purchased for $50.00 + tax

An Oklahoma Diary
ISBN: 978-1-936091-21-8
Quantity	Amount	Total
	Tax (OK residents)
	Shipping	XXXXX
	Total	